

Anotemos

TECHNOLOGY NUMBER: 2019-310

OVERVIEW

Multi-functional video annotation software

- Multiple users can collaborate with each other on the videos
- Videos can be uploaded from a variety of online providers, including Youtube and Vimeo

BACKGROUND

Anotemos is a web-based software that enables users to annotate videos with text comments, audio comments, drawings, and various other tags. Users can invite others to collaborate with them on the video timeline. Videos may be imported from a variety of online providers, including Youtube, Vimeo, Kaltura, and Google Drive. Anotemos is integrated with Canvas via LTI.

ADDITIONAL DETAILS

We offer 3 licensing tiers. Please contact Tina Suntres - tsuntres@umich.edu to learn more. After purchasing a license, you will get an email with a link to access your purchase confirmation. Please visit the Anotemos login page (<https://www.anotemos.org/signup>) and enter this link to create your account or renew your existing account.

Basic (Free):

- Unlimited collaboration on commentaries owned by other users
- Create up to 12 commentaries

Advanced ($500/year):

- Unlimited collaboration on commentaries owned by other users
- Create unlimited commentaries
- Download up to 4 commentary reports per year
- Add up to 1 temporary user per commentary

Premium ($1,250/year):

- Unlimited collaboration on commentaries owned by other users
- Create unlimited commentaries
- Download unlimited commentary reports per year
- Add unlimited temporary users per commentary
- Access to team accounts

Technology ID

2019-310

Category

Content

Software & Content

Author(s)

Daniel Chazan

Patricio Herbst

Srikanth Lavu

Further information

Tina Suntres

tsuntres@umich.edu

Learn more

